One Hundred Seventeenth Congress

Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol

November 9, 2021

VIA U.S. MAIL

Mr. Christopher Liddell

Dear Mr. Liddell:

Pursuant to the authorities set forth in House Resolution 503 and the rules of the House of Representatives, the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol (“Select Committee”) hereby transmits a subpoena that compels you to produce the documents set forth in the accompanying schedule by November 23, 2021, and to appear for a deposition on November 30, 2021.

The Select Committee is investigating the facts, circumstances, and causes of the January 6th attack and issues relating to the peaceful transfer of power, in order to identify and evaluate lessons learned and to recommend to the House and its relevant committees corrective laws, policies, procedures, rules, or regulations.

The investigation and public accounts have revealed credible evidence of your involvement in the events within the scope of the Select Committee’s inquiry. You were in the White House on January 6 and are a witness regarding activities of that day.¹ In addition, due to your role working with White House Chief of Staff Mark Meadows as Deputy Chief of Staff, you are in a position to potentially inform the Committee’s examination of Mr. Meadows’ efforts to communicate with others, including state officials in Georgia, about allegations of fraud that had already been dismissed by state and federal courts,² organizers of the January 6 events including Amy Kremer,³
